FAWNA Small Animal Enclosure Project.

LMS has been engaged to manufacture a range of panels for assembly into enclosures for animals. The modular design allows construction of various enclosure sizes For Australian Wildlife Needing Aid.

If you have some spare time, and some metal working skills, Brian Wood could find something to keep you busy for a while.

P&C Meeting - Friday 22nd November.

The culinary skills of Garry Rich were put to the test at the November event, and no-one was disappointed. Garry put together a delicious Garry's Special Lasagne followed by a very impressive Trifle. Sorry, no pictures - the editor was too busy enjoying the meal. The usual UNO game followed with several happy winners.

VHS Video Viewing.

Members are advised that equipment for viewing VHS Video Tapes has been set up at the shed. Dig out your old tapes and bring them in for private viewing, or to show them to other members. The old tapes are likely to be deteriorating in quality, but it could be interesting and entertaining to see what people were doing a few decades ago. If there is sufficient demand, provision will be made to copy tapes to DVD.

“What else did you fix today?”

Friends

In a crowded city at a bus stop, a beautiful young woman wearing a tight leather skirt waited for a bus. As the bus stopped and it was her turn to get on, she realised her skirt was too tight to allow her leg to reach the height of the first step of the bus.

Slightly embarrassed and with a quick smile to the bus driver, she reached behind her to unzip her skirt a little, thinking this would give her enough slack to raise her leg. She tried again to take the step, only to discover that she couldn't. So, a little more embarrassed, she once again reached behind her to unzip her skirt a little more, and for the second time attempted the step.

Once again, much to her embarrassment, she could not raise her leg. With a smile to the driver, she again reached behind her to unzip a little more and again was unable to make the step.

As this was happening, a large guy who was standing behind her picked her up easily by the waist and placed her gently on the step of the bus. The woman went ballistic, turned to the would-be Samaritan and screeched "How dare you touch my body! I don't even know who you are!" The guy smiled and drawled "Well ma'am' normally I would agree with you, but after you unzipped my fly three times, I kind'a figured we were friends."

"This should keep you going while I'm on vacation."

Ponderings:

Confusions still unresolved:

1. At a movie theatre, which arm rest is yours?
2. If people evolve from monkeys, why are monkeys still around?
3. Why is there a 'D' in fridge, but not in refrigerator?
4. Who knew what time it was when the first clock was made?
