Vision Statement: The Laurieton Men's Shed aims to be the venue of choice for men of all ages in the local community; to share their interests, skills and ideals in a spirit of mateship and a place to benefit their health through participation in a variety of activities with a sense of belonging.

Laurieton Men's Shed is OPEN -

COVID Awareness. You probably know that COVID-19 is still spreading in the community. It is still as bad as it was a year ago, and probably worse. It is just not getting the same level of media attention. If you're unwell, please stay away from the shed. Continuation of distancing and hand hygiene measures is encouraged.

Happenings Around Your Shed.

LMS Land Tenure - 164 Diamond Head Road.

Recent discussions between the shed Management Committee and the current land owners (Hy-Tec) have failed to reach agreement regarding a contract clause which allows Hy-Tec to terminate the contract before the proposed 20 year lease term. Representatives from Hy-Tec and ADBRI will be attending the monthly general meeting on 19th July to present their Lease proposal to members.

Name Badge Colour Coding.

A scheme to add colour coding to member's name badges is being developed by the committee. Background colours will indicate safety assessment status, specialist skills etc. Talk to a committee member if you have any suggestions for the scheme.

Feeding Shed Members.

John Toth is cooking bacon & egg rolls for breakfast on Monday mornings.

David Dunmall is cooking lunch on Tuesdays and Thursdays. $5 per serve. Put your name on the whiteboard the day before to help with catering quantities and ensure you don't miss out.

Dave Wells continues cooking morning tea treats on Thursdays.

Morning tea will also be provided on Tuesdays

These events are more than just an opportunity for a good feed - they are also social gatherings where you can meet and talk with fellow members without interrupting workshop activities.

Missing Concrete Mixer.

If you have borrowed the Shed Concrete Mixer, or know who did, please return it, or contact Peter Atkins to arrange collection.

The Generation Gap...

I was checking out at the local Wal-Mart with just a few items and the lady behind me put her things on the belt close to mine. I picked up one of those dividers that they keep by the cash register and placed it between our things so they wouldn't get mixed. After the girl had scanned all of my items, she picked up the divider, looking it all over for the bar code so she could scan it.

Not finding the bar code, she said to me, 'Do you know how much this is?'

I said to her 'I've changed my mind; I don't think I'll buy that today.'

She said 'OK,' and I paid her for the things and left.

She had no clue to what had just happened.

=====

A woman at work was seen putting a credit card into her DVD drive and pulling it out very quickly.

When I inquired as to what she was doing, she said she was shopping on the Internet and they kept asking for a credit card number, so she was using the ATM thingy.

For a Laugh.

A guy wants a divorce. He tells the judge, "I just can't take it anymore. Every night she's out until way after midnight, just going from bar to bar."

Judge asks, "What's she doing?"

The guy answers, "Looking for me."

A guy walks into a lumberyard and asks for some two-by-fours. The clerk asks, "How long do you need them?"

The guy answers, "A long time. We're gonna build a house."

More Court Records

How Do Court Reporters Keep Straight Faces? These are from a book called Disorder in the Courts and are things people actually said in court, word for word, taken down and published by court reporters that had the torment of staying calm while the exchanges were taking place.

ATTORNEY: So the date of conception (of the baby) was August 8th?

WITNESS: Yes.

ATTORNEY: And what were you doing at that time?

WITNESS: Getting laid.
