Laurieton Men's Shed

Vision Statement: The Laurieton Men's Shed aims to be the venue of choice for men of all ages in the local community; to share their interests, skills and ideals in a spirit of mateship and a place to benefit their health through participation in a variety of activities with a sense of belonging.

Happenings Around Your Shed.

The Monster Garage Sale - Saturday 8th September.

A very popular place to be on Saturday morning where parking was sometimes difficult to find. You know what they say about Early Birds and Worms. Some reports indicated that about half of the goods for sale were sold in the first hour (8:00-9:00am). There were lots of happy customers taking home their bargain purchase.

Expect financial details from JD at the General Meeting.

Wednesday 15th August Camden Haven Walking for Pleasure Group

Scotty and his team of helpers fed and entertained about 40 enthusiastic walkers.

Thursday, 30th August Lakeside Father's Pizza Lunch.

The pizza oven was again blazing to produce a good feed for fathers from the Laurieton Lakeside Aged Care Residence. You probably saw the huge spread of photos on this event in the Camden Haven Courier.

Coming Events

LUSC...Sunday Raffles commenced 5th August

Richard can always use some help running the weekly raffle.

Riverwalk Markets - Sunday 16th September.

Help raise some funds for the Shed and probably have some time to browse the other stalls for a bargain.

Annual General Meeting and September General Meeting: Tuesday 18th - starts 10.30am.

P&C Meeting - Friday 20th September.

The usual food and drinks, then who knows what to expect? Maybe UNO will back, so bring your spare change.

Apologies for the sparse content this month. Being away for three weeks in August didn't help. Contributions to the newsletter are always welcome. Please email anything you think might be of interest to fellow members to the editor at mjbarrow52@gmail.com.

For a Laugh.

Politics.

During a dull Parliament House dinner, Chloe Shorten, the wife of the Leader of the Opposition, leaned over to chat with Governor-General Cosgrove.

"I bought Bill a parrot for his birthday. That bird is so smart, Bill has already taught him to say over two hundred words!"

"Very impressive," said Cosgrove, "but, you do realise he just speaks the words. He doesn't really understand what they all mean."

"Oh, I know", replied Chloe, "but neither does the parrot."

PONDEROSA

* If you take an Oriental person and spin him around several times, does he become disoriented?

* If people from Poland are called Poles, why aren't people from Holland called Holes?

SENIOR'S STICKERS

My daughter and I went through the McDonald's driveway window and I gave the cashier a $5 note. Our total was $4.25, so I also handed her 25c..

She said, 'you gave me too much money.'

I said, 'Yes I know, but this way you can just give me a $1 coin back.'

She sighed and went to get the manager who asked me to repeat my request.

I did so, and he handed me back the 25c, and said 'We're sorry but we don't do that kind of thing.'

The cashier then proceeded to give me back 75c in change.

Do not confuse the people at MacD's.
