

Shavings

Laurieton Men's Shed

Vision Statement: The Laurieton Men's Shed aims to be the venue of choice for men of all ages in the local community; to share their interests, skills and ideals in a spirit of mateship and a place to benefit their health through participation in a variety of activities with a sense of belonging.

Happenings Around Your Shed.

The Shed buildings and surrounding trees suffered some damage from the storm on the Thursday before the Christmas Party.

A sizeable team of men answered the call for help with the cleanup on 28th December. They were likened to a swarm of ants as the damaged shed was disassembled and the contents were relocated to safer places.

After the storm

After the ants

Tree Base - leaning but still standing

Great News about the LMS Site.

The new owners of the land announced at the December General Meeting that they intend to transfer ownership of the land to the shed.

Coming Events

Riverwalk Markets - Sunday 20th January.

Help needed for one of the busiest markets of the year.

Monthly General Meeting: NEW TIME 1:00pm Tuesday 15th January.

Lunch will be available BEFORE the meeting from 11:45am. After the meeting, hang around for a social P&C afternoon which may include pool, cards, chatting with fellow members over a few drinks. Feel free to suggest other activities which start with P or C - just kidding - any initial letter is acceptable.

For a Laugh.

The pedestrian light on the corner beeps when it's safe to cross the street.

I was crossing with an 'intellectually challenged' co-worker of mine.

She asked if I knew what the beeper was for.

I explained that it signals blind people when the light is red.

Appalled, she responded, 'what on earth are blind people doing driving?'

She is a government employee.....

PONDEROSA

* Why if you send something by road it is called a shipment, but when you send it by sea it is called cargo?

* When cheese gets its picture taken, what does it say?

SENIOR'S STICKERS

THIS COULD BE US SOMEDAY

Couple in their nineties are both having problems remembering things. During a check-up, the doctor tells them that they're physically okay, but they might want to start writing things down to help them remember.

Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair 'Want anything while I'm in the kitchen?' he asks.

'Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?'

'Sure.'

'Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?' she asks. 'No, I can remember it.'

'Well, I'd like some strawberries on top, too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?'

He says, 'I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries'

'I'd also like whipped cream. I'm certain you'll forget that, write it down?' she asks.

Irritated, he says, 'I don't need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream - I got it, for goodness sake!'

Then he toddles into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes, the old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs. She stares at the plate for a moment.

'Where's my toast?'