Happenings Around Your Shed. Trailer Restoration

This trailer has been restored in the Metal workshop, and after a fresh coat of paint, and with wheels back on, it will be for sale. If you are interested, or know someone who is, talk to Richard Curry.

Thirsty Bees

Like all living things, bees need water to survive. The bucket of water near the shed bee hives is for their refreshment... and survival. The sticks are there to allow bees to reach the water without falling in. Please do not remove them.

There is plenty of honey currently available for purchase at the office.

For a Laugh.

I was at the airport, checking in at the gate when an airport employee asked, 'Has anyone put anything in your baggage without your knowledge?' To which I replied, 'If it was without my knowledge, how would I know?' He smiled knowingly and nodded, 'That's why we ask'.

PONDEROSA

* Why is a person who plays the piano called a pianist but a person who drives a racing car not called a racist?

* If lawyers are disbarred and clergymen defrocked, doesn't it follow that electricians can be delighted, musicians denoted, cowboys deranged, models deposed, tree surgeons debarked, and dry cleaners depressed?

SENIOR'S STICKERS

THIS COULD BE US SOMEDAY

An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house, and after eating, the wives left the table and went into the kitchen.

The two gentlemen were talking, and one said, 'Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great I would recommend it very highly.'

The other man said, 'What is the name of the restaurant?'

The first man thought and thought and finally said, 'What's the name of that flower you give to someone you love? You know, the one that's red and has thorns.'

'Do you mean a rose?'

'Yes, that's the one,' replied the man. He then turned towards the kitchen and yelled, 'Rose, what's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?'
