Vision Statement: The Laurieton Men's Shed aims to be the venue of choice for men of all ages in the local community; to share their interests, skills and ideals in a spirit of mateship and a place to benefit their health through participation in a variety of activities with a sense of belonging.

Laurieton Men's Shed is OPEN -

COVID Awareness. You probably know that COVID-19 is still spreading in the community. It is still as bad as it was a year ago, and probably worse. It is just not getting the same level of media attention. If you're unwell, please stay away from the shed. Continuation of distancing and hand hygiene measures is encouraged.

Editorial.

Have you seen LMS Shavings No.141? It seems to have gone missing somewhere in The Cloud. Actually, in anticipation of a very busy month in August, I had it prepared a week early with the intention of publishing while I was travelling. In all the excitement and stress of chasing rally cars through Queensland and western NSW for two weeks, I completely forgot about it. Sincere apologies to anyone who missed it.

Happenings Around Your Shed.

LMS Land Tenure - 164 Diamond Head Road.

Hy-Tec/ADBRI Accepted some suggestions for lease contract amendments from the General Meeting on 19th July. A revised contract (version 3) has been received, and reviewed by the shed management committee. Some of the requested amendments have not been made and the affected lease contract terms are still unacceptable. Future actions will be advised when decided.

FAWNA Animal Enclosures.

Metal workers have recently been busy constructing enclosure panels. These are to fulfil additional orders received as a result of the popularity of the enclosures constructed last year.

Pizza Days.

The Shed hosted pizza lunches for the Camden Haven Walkers on Wednesday 31st August following a walk in Kattang Nature Reserve at Camden Head, and fathers from the Laurieton Lakeside Aged Care on Thursday 1st September to celebrate Fathers Day. Nibbles, drinks and pizzas were enjoyed by all attendees.

The Generation Gap...

I was checking out at the local Wal-Mart with just a few items and the lady behind me put her things on the belt close to mine. I picked up one of those dividers that they keep by the cash register and placed it between our things so they wouldn't get mixed.

After the girl had scanned all of my items, she picked up the divider, looking it all over for the bar code so she could scan it.

Not finding the bar code, she said to me, 'Do you know how much this is?'

I said to her 'I've changed my mind; I don't think I'll buy that today.'

She said 'OK,' and I paid her for the things and left.

She had no clue to what had just happened.

For a Laugh.

After 10 years a wife started to think their child looks kinda strange so she did a DNA test and found out the child is not theirs, she told her husband what she found out, the husband replied, u don't remember do you?? When we were leaving the hospital the baby pooped and u told me go and change him so I went inside got a clean one and left the dirty one there. The wife fainted.... 😂😂😂😂😂

More Court Records

How Do Court Reporters Keep Straight Faces? These are from a book called Disorder in the Courts and are things people actually said in court, word for word, taken down and published by court reporters that had the torment of staying calm while the exchanges were taking place.

ATTORNEY: Were you present when your picture was taken?

WITNESS: Are you shitting me?

ATTORNEY: Are you qualified to give a urine sample?

WITNESS: Are you qualified to ask that question?
